The Eight-Hour Bill in the House.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—The House, by a vote of 105 to 37 adjourned at an early hour this afternoon without taking a final vote on the measure which it had under consideration all day, a bill to provide for the adjustment of the accounts of laborers, workmen and mechanics, under the eight-hour law. By a special order the House set apart today for the consideration of bills reported from the Committee on Labor, and the eight-hour bill was the first one taken up. It was confidently expected by the members of the Labor Committee that they would be able to secure the passage of the bill and the bill to abolish contract system in the United States Prisons, before an adjournment was taken to-day, but as the sequel showed they relied too much on promises of support which they had derived from a large number of members who, by a vote on the motion to adjourn, showed their sympathies were with the workingmen only when they needed their votes. So few friends had the workingmen in the House to-day that not a sufficient number of votes could be had to have a ye and nay vote called on the motion to adjourn. Only 19 members were willing to go upon record on the question. Of the 105 members who showed themselves opposed to the passage of the eight-hour bill, by voting to adjourn, only four had the courage to come out boldly and oppose the measure. These were Tillman, of North Carolina, Browne, of Indiana, Struble, of Iowa, and Dibble of South Carolina. The other 101 hid themselves behind the motion to adjourn to accomplish the defeat of the measure, upon which they evidently feared to go upon record as opposing it. The bill was reported to the House with unanimous approval from the Committee on Labor, and provided that eight hours should be a day's work for all laborers, workmen and mechanics in the employ of the Government. It also provided that parties in the employ of the Government who had been compelled to work more than eight hours for one day's compensation since the 25th of June, 1878, the date of the passage of the eight-hour law, should have their claims for extra compensation for labor performed in excess of eight hours a day adjudicated in the Court of Claims. A similar bill was reported from the Senate Committee on Education and Labor yesterday, with a favorable recommendation, and it is now on the Senate calendar. Very little opposition was shown the bill during the debate in the House, and it was generally believed it would pass. The general debate brought out two members, Tillman and Browne, in opposition to the measure. Several amendments were made to the first section, which materially altered it, and the second section had been reached and an amendment offered and debated and submitted to the House for a vote when Crisp moved to adjourn, and his motion carried. The vote on adjournment showed that many of the members were not in sympathy with the measure, and a vote on the question of calling the roll on the motion to adjourn showed the members who opposed the bill were afraid to go on record as having voted to kill the bill. This measure, more than any other, except the bill to prohibit the importation of foreign labor under contract, has received the indorsement of the trades unions and labor organizations throughout the country.

Freights on Wool.

Sheep owners complain of the discrimination against San Francisco, in the matter of freight charges on wool. From Winnemucca to San Francisco the rate is $2 16 per hundred pounds, while to Boston, New York or Philadelphia the rates are $2 50 per hundred pounds, on wool valued at 12 cents per pound; $3 25 on wool valued at from 12 to 18 cents; and $3 75 on wool valued at 18 cents or over pound. It costs only 34 cents more per hundred pounds to send wool across the continent, to Boston, than it does to San Francisco, 466 miles away.—Winnemucca Silver State.

We would kindly suggest to our esteemed contemporary that it call the attention of our very able and efficient Representative in Congress to the matter complained of above, that he may endeavor to have it rectified—that is, if he should feel so disposed.

Were it not for the cool breezy nights the weather would be pronounced uncomfortably warm.

WHO WILL BE THE NOMINEE?

Pacific Coast Congressmen on the Outlook at Chicago.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—An Associated Press telegram was printed here to-day stating that General Tom Clunie and others of the California delegation to Chicago had come out for the nomination of Charles A. Dana. It created a ripple, but no excitement, for it was generally regarded as meaning something else than what appeared on its face. There were no two of the Pacific Coast member of Congress who had the same opinion of it. A Chronicle correspondent talked with several of them this afternoon, starting out with Healey, who said that notwithstanding all the booming for other candidates it looked to him as if Cleveland was in the lead and would in the end be nominated. "They may do all they can," said Healey, "but they won't be able to beat Cleveland. As for Tilden," he concluded, "I do not think he will be a candidate. I believe his letter was final."

Cassidy of Nevada, was next applied to. He said: "I don't take any stock in this man, except that I am glad of it. Dana killed all the rest of the candidates and now he can have a chance to kill himself."

"Who will be nominated?"

"Oh, I don't know," replied Cassidy, "there are wagon-loads of money being used. Field and Flower are the ticket that lifts the most weight. It is backed by their own wealth and the wealth of other New Yorkers, who don't want to see Cleveland get such a prominent place. They are knitting him in New York at all points. It strikes me we ought to try Hancock, 'the suber,' for another race. His record was clean and he may do better this time. Tilden may come out and take another pull at it. If he does, he will clean all the rest out and sweep Blaine and Logan out of existence."

Representative Badd could not understand Clunie's action. "Clunie is a mighty good man," said Badd, "and he sees pretty far in the future. He is as sharp as we have them in California, but Dana stands no show. Put it down, also, that Thurman is out of the race, though our delegates from California were instructed for him. It won't do to take a man from an October State, and, besides that, we can give Ohio to the Republicans and still win easily. Randall would make a good candidate and so would this man (pointing to Senator Bayard, who happened to come up to speak to Budd just at that time), but neither can get the nomination. My judgment is that McDonald and Slocum will be our strongest ticket. McDonald will carry Indiana, sure, and Slocum will carry New York even heavier than he did before he ran for Congressman-at-large. He can carry New Jersey, also, but I believe the Republicans concede that any Democratic ticket can carry that State. Connecticut will be the fighting ground and McDonald and Slocum could carry it. The State Government there now is Democratic. I am for McDonald and Slocum."

Representative Tully was asked what he thought of the situation. "We are mixed, badly mixed," he replied, "We have no fixed idea as to our men or our policy. Tilden is out of the question. He is too feeble to run, even if nominated. I saw him and talked to him and know, therefore, of what I say when I say he is too feeble to run for or hold any office. Hancock is a spent bullet, and I cannot see any substantial reason for nominating McDonald. He is a pleasant old gentleman, but that is all. I can't see where his strength is to come from. You know what I think is the matter with some of those delegates from California? I think they are for Field and are preparing the way for him. I believe General Rosecrans would make a strong candidate for Vice President and I would like to see him nominated. Congressmen from all sections of the country tell me they favor him for the second place on the ticket, provided an Eastern man is nominated for President."

Representative Glascock said that out of the great number of tickets that were spoken of he was for Cleveland and McDonald. He thought that combination stood a better chance of being nominated at Chicago than any other. He did not think that John Kelly's Tammanyites would be strong enough to injure Cleveland much.

General Rosecrans has considerable hesitancy about expressing any opinion about the candidates, though he said he felt more and more convinced that a strong ticket would win a victory. He thought Flowers' candidacy, like that of Bayard, Randall and some others, was out of the question. Neither did he think that Tilden would accept if unanimously nominated. He thought that the circumstances that surrounded Cleveland's candidacy would defeat him, for he did not think he could cast the vote of New York in the Convention. General Rosecrans stated that he had been informed by numerous political friends that they would present his name at Chicago for the first place on the ticket, but further than that he declined to speak.

Horatio Seymour Talks.

Ex-Governor Horatio Seymour, Democratic candidate for the Presidency in 1868, has given the following on the Democratic Presidential nomination and the situation in New York State to a representative of the Boston Herald: The contest made by Mr. Flower shows him to be a man of energy and capacity and that he is well liked by the Democrats, where he is known; but it seems from such reports as reach me that Governor Cleveland is the wisest choice of the New York delegation as its candidate for the Presidential nomination at Chicago. I regard him as a man of great strength in this State. The elements of opposition to him in this State are not such, in my judgment, as would fail to support him after his nomination. It will be remembered that Governor Tilden carried this State in 1876, although a much more formidable combination from this State opposed his nomination at St. Louis than will oppose Governor Cleveland. Governor Cleveland's course has been an admirable one for the best interests of our State and commands the approval of all fair-minded men without regard to party. In the present condition of the Republican party in New York Governor Cleveland would be voted for by many Republicans.

The Administration and the Ticket.

It is probable that at an early day the President and his Cabinet will attend a ratification meeting in New York or Philadelphia, and that the earnest desire of these gentlemen for the success of the Republican ticket will be made manifest. The report that a well known journalist went to the White House and said to President Arthur, on behalf of George William Curtis, that the New York Independents were anxious to know whether, in case the Democrats nominated a bad ticket, and the Independents nominated Arthur at Saratoga, he would accept, is pronounced at the White House to be absolutely untrue. No such proposition has been made to the President, and in view of the attitude taken by the so-called Independents at Chicago, where they refused to give him a single vote for the nomination, it is not likely any one of them would have impudence to offer the President such an insult.

Conkling Will Not Participate.

An intimate personal friend of ex-Senator Conkling says that Conkling will take no part in the coming campaign. He expects to be called to Europe shortly on professional business and will remain abroad throughout the greater part of the Summer. He has nothing to say concerning politics. He says that under no circumstances will he ever again participate in political affairs. He presumes, however, that the Democrats will make some fatal blunder this year, as usual.

There were never more than four Mints in the United States at one time. In 1835 branch Mints were established at New Orleans, Charlotte, N. C., and Dahlonega, Ga., in addition to the parent Mint at Philadelphia. All the above were discontinued, however, and Mints have been established at San Francisco, Carson City and Denver, although the latter has never been provided with coinage machinery. The mint at New Orleans has also been put in operation again.

The tail end of the California Democratic delegation passed through yesterday on the way to Chicago. Their car was inscribed "Tilden and Victory." The motto is absurd, and shows the extravagance of their demands in the face of the conceded fact that the "Victory" will be Blaine's. Still if the Democrats can't win the victory, it is to be hoped that they may get Tilden, and perhaps that may satisfy them.

Since the death of M. C. Lake at Reno the lawyers have discovered that his will is not legal and it must be protested. The legal fraternity now become his heirs and the relatives have concluded to quit.—Carson Appeal.

It Seems to Satisfy

A family want, and I wonder how we got along without Parker's Ginger Tonic. It cured me of nervous prostration, and I have used it since for all sorts of complaints in our family. Mrs. Jones, Albany.

NEW TO-DAY.

D. 1884, notice is hereby given that Friday, the 11th day of June, A. D. 1884, at 10 A. Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. feb. 21-sw-1yr

Strength for Mind and Body.

There is more strength restoring power in a bottle of Parker's Ginger Tonic than in a bushel of malt or a gallon of milk. This explains why invalids find it such a wonderful invigorant for mind and body.

Cleanliness and purity make Parker's Hair Balsam the favorite for restoring the youthful color to gray hair.

When the blood moves sluggishly in the veins because it is loaded with impurities, an alternative is needed, as this condition of the vital fluid cannot last long without serious results. There is nothing better than Ayer's Sarsaparilla to purify the blood and impart energy to the system.

Several healthy looking men were in town yesterday looking for work. They came in from the west-bound emigrant train.

The Virginia Chronicle says: It is deemed probable that Nevada will likewise furnish the U. S. Marshal for Alaska, in the person of M. C. Hilmyer, who is said to be an applicant for the position.

Those of our foreign-born fellow citizens who desire to be naturalized in order to vote at the next general election must hasten to do so. Less than six weeks is left in which to procure the necessary papers.

Mr. Prosser, a son of Wm. Prosser after whom Prosser Creek was named, was in town yesterday. His father died at Rocklin about two months ago and the young man is over here for the purpose of arranging some of the old gentleman's business.

Rev. A. B. Palmer and family will leave for California sometime this week. There are several hundred curious minded citizens in Reno whose anxiety would be greatly relieved if he should file the certificate of the secret marriage which is supposed to have taken place about two months ago.

Ayer's Ague Cure is a powerful tonic bitter, composed wholly of vegetable substance. Its action is peculiar, prompt and powerful; breaking up the chill, curing the fever and expelling the poison from the system, yet leaving no harmful or unpleasant effect upon the patient. Sufferers from chills and fever who have used quinine as a remedy will appreciate this.

DIRECTOR BURCHARD.

He Passes Through Town En Route to Carson.

Hon. Horatio C. Burchard, Director of the Mint, arrived from the east Sunday evening and yesterday morning proceeded to Carson, where he goes to supervise the regular annual settlement at the Mint. A JOURNAL reporter met him at the hotel, and in the course of a pleasant chat he said no action had yet been taken towards the appointment of a successor to Melter and Refiner Bryant, for the reason that his resignation had not been received at Washington. He stated however that there were a large number of applicants for the position, but he could form no opinion at this time as to who would secure it. On the subject of politics, he gives glowing accounts of the great popularity of Blaine, especially throughout the West, and says it is the general opinion among the best informed men that the Republican ticket is certain of success. His business at Carson will detain him but a day or two, after which he will proceed to San Francisco and supervise the settlement of the Mint at that place.

Since the above was written Mr. Burchard has returned from Carson, and went to the Bay by last evening's train. He simply made a settlement with the operative officers, and will return to complete the routine business after his labors in San Francisco are over. He reports everything satisfactory at the Carson Mint thus far.

Glendale South School.

The closing exercises of the Glendale South School took place on Friday last. Abbie Denning; Recitations, by Sarah Alt, Clara Savage and Abbie Denning; Dialogue by J. Alt and J. Kleppe; Song by the school; Recitation, Clara Denning; Dialogue, Sarah Alt and Abbie Denning; Recitation, John Kleppe; Dialogue, Lizzie Sim, Sadie Savage and Melissa Blasdel; Recitation, M. Blasdel; Valedictory, Lida Savage. Prizes for scholarship were then presented as follows: Abbie Denning, Luella Whistler, Cad Savage, John Kleppe. Sarah Alt was awarded a prize for attendance. The programme which was successfully carried out wound up with a ball at Denning's Hall.

Soldiers En Route.

The 21st regiment, U. S. infantry, six hundred strong, passed through Reno Sunday noon en route to Montana. With them is the famous 21st regiment band numbering 26 pieces which took the first premium at the Masonic conclave in San Francisco last Summer. The band left the train and played a few pieces on the corner of Virginia street and Commercial Row to the delight of a large crowd of spectators. This regiment has been stationed on the coast for twenty years, and this is the first time they have been stationed east of the mountains. Some of the company did not seem to appreciate the change while others are delighted to get out into a new field.

The Jose Benefit.

The many friends of Dick Jose will learn with regret of his leaving us this week, for San Francisco. It is proposed to give him a Farewell Benefit concert, by the best musical talent of Reno, assisted by himself, at the Theatre on Wednesday evening next, July 2d. Let all his friends and those who wish the pleasure of hearing him sing, see that he is greeted with a full house. Tickets to be obtained at Jamison's, Nasby's, and at Pinniger and Queen's; price 50 cts. This benefit is deemed a fitting tribute in grateful recognition of the invaluable services which he has ever cheerfully volunteered in aid of every musical entertainment given in Reno within the past four years.

Ho! For Chicago.

A special car containing the California delegation to the Democratic National Convention passed through Reno Sunday morning attached to the regular overland train. Their banner displayed the conspicuous motto, "No 8 to 7 this time, the Peoples' Choice Must Prevail." The delegates seemed to be enthusiastically bent upon having a good time, and if possible maintain the prestige given to the Pacific Coast by the Republican delegation which preceded them. The delegation seem to be undecided upon any particular candidate, with a decided leaning toward Thurman.

Chinaman Killed.

On Sunday last a Chinaman was shot and killed by one of the men working at Marlette's camp. The man immediately walked down to Franktown, gave himself up, and requested an examination, claiming the act as done in self-defense, the Chinaman having first drawn a pistol on him. District Attorney Alexander will go up to Franktown this morning and attend to the case.

A Wadsworth Surprise Party.

The Wadsworth correspondent of the Truckee Republican gives the annexed account of a recent surprise party at Wadsworth:

It was the good fortune of your correspondent to attend one of the most enjoyable parties that has ever taken place in this burg. The occasion was a surprise party given to Mr. and Mrs. P. Gillispie at their new home across the river. The party was under the management of Mrs. N. Cole and Miss Belle Pope, and they deserve great credit for the grand success of the affair. At about 9 o'clock all the invited guests repaired to the new town across the river, headed by the Wadsworth band, which discoursed sweet music as they passed along. Arriving at the residence the door was thrown open and all invited in by the host and hostess, and with vocal and instrumental music by the Misses Childge, McPherson and Pierce, selections by the Wadsworth band and dancing by all present, the time passed until 11 o'clock, when all were treated to a splendid repast, your correspondent doing ample justice to the dainty dishes set before him, and acquitting himself in a manner that called forth the admiration of all beholders. He fully sustained the reputation of the athletes of the Republican in that respect. At 12 o'clock the signal for departure was given, and all returned home regretting that the time flew so quickly by, and wishing the host and hostess many such pleasures in their new home. Numerous rich and handsome dresses were worn by the ladies present, but as your reporter is very poorly posted in that line, he does not want to show his ignorance by attempting a description of them. I must not forget to mention that Messrs. Sterling, Hall and Jackson gave an impressive exhibition of their vocal powers by entertaining those present with beautiful songs, for which they were loudly applauded. Through the kindness of Mrs. C. McBean and Miss Belle Pope we were enabled to get some of the names of those present, of which we append a list:

Ladies—Mrs. N. Cole, Mrs. C. McBean, Mrs. A. A. Pope, Mrs. T. N. Carey, Mrs. J. P. George, Mrs. R. L. Fuller, Mrs. P. Gillispie, Mrs. E. Fowler, Mrs. C. L. Tant, Mrs. E. J. Richards, Mrs. Murray, Mrs. J. Lamb, Mrs. E. Gladding, Mrs. Graham, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. E. Olinghouse, Mrs. Hollingshead, Mrs. W. W. Geary, Mrs. P. Edgar, Misses Mamie Pierce, Belle Pope, Jennie McPherson, Laura Angus, Kittie Childge, Annie Blundell, Jessie Nicholls, Lillie Nicholls, Eviline Lievre, Marion Lievre, Nellie Ashby, Tina Raphael, Jennie Lundy, Rosalia Manasse.

Gents—Messrs. Middleton, J. S. Sterling, J. F. George, R. Wray, W. Givan, J. W. Hall, R. W. Dickson, Geo. Hass, C. Rodger, R. Cowles, E. Griswold, J. C. Erb, T. J. Teagles, J. Kunkup, R. L. Fuller, P. Gushie, C. Edden, F. Hampton, T. J. Herman, V. W. Geary, J. Kane, N. Cole, M. J. Gaskill, E. Fowler, R. P. Williams, J. R. Garcia.

A Discouraged Celestial.

An old Chinaman who gave his name as Gee Ling and found his way to Reno a short time ago without money and without friends, and who has since been eking out an existence by picking up rags about town, put an end to his unprofitable career Sunday night by swallowing an overdose of opium. The Chinamen say they knew nothing about it until about 10 o'clock yesterday morning when they found him stowed away in a secluded corner as dead as a door nail. Undertaker Sanders will give the body a Christian burial to-day.

The Burke Mine.

The contract to sink fifty feet on the Burke mine, north of the Comstock, has been completed, and a contract to sink fifty feet further will be let to-day. The bottom of the shaft is in good live quartz, showing bunches and stringers of high grade ore. Mr. Burke had intended to drift east from the bottom of this shaft but having sunk over twenty feet in good quartz he concluded the wiser plan would be to sink another fifty feet before drifting.

Left Us.

Prof. G. F. Foster and family took their departure last evening for California. A large crowd of children belonging to the public school and other friends were at the depot to bid their old teacher good-bye. Prof. Foster goes to Vacaville, where, on the first day of September, he will take charge of the college at that place.

A Change of Base.

The Virginia Chronicle staff has been reorganized, and during D. E. McCarthy's absence in Chicago the editorial pen will be wielded by Ogden Hiles and the local attended to by Pleasant Moore. The business will be in charge of Mr. Coleman, and everybody will be happy.

NEVADA CASH STORE.—Next door to Ruhe's butcher shop, has opened and offers to the public great bargains in dry goods and men's furnishing goods. The firm will also receive this week a lot of ladies, men and children's shoes, from the great El Paso bankrupt sale. Everybody is respectfully invited to call and price goods. S. Eamon, Manager.

J. C. Smith claims to be owner of the finest piece of horse flesh east of the Sierras. It is a Norman colt, three months old, plump as a partridge and already out-weighs an average mustang.

Surveyor Keddle has gone to the Bay on a business trip.

Justice Pierson was up from Wadsworth last evening.

The Central Pacific Will Pay as Usual.

General Manager A. N. Towne yesterday telegraphed the following order along the line:

ALL EMPLOYEES: Pay no attention to the many rumors and newspaper articles regarding postponement of payment of wages due you. The pay car is now in the shops undergoing necessary repairs and as soon as it is in condition to run, which will be not later than the 10th proximo, it will be sent over the line in its regular course for the purpose of making payments. A. N. Towne

An Heir of Teachers.

Miss Jennie M. Kelley, Assistant Principal of the Gold Hill schools, went to Carson yesterday to spend her vacation.

Miss Nettie Lynch, another Gold Hill teacher, will pass through Reno this evening on route to Oakland, to reside there.

Mrs. M. H. Swift, who recently resigned the Principalship of the Gold Hill schools, also shakes the dust of the Comstock from her gaiters to-day, and goes to Los Angeles to reside.

W. W. Booher, for several years principal of the schools at Dayton, goes East to-day for a short visit.

Administrator of Lake's Estate.

In the District Court yesterday C. T. Bender was appointed Special Administrator of the Lake estate, and filed his bond in the sum of $10,000. Mrs. Jans Lake, as guardian of the boy, asks for the Probate of the Will, and Mrs. Mary Lake asks for the appointment of C. T. Bender and C. H. Eastman as regular Administrators of the estate. These matters will engage the attention of the Court on the 9th and 11th.

Large Train.

Sunday evening's west-bound train consisted of thirteen cars, drawn by two locomotives. Among the passengers were two theatrical companies, each having a car to itself.

The Sacramento Chief of Police yesterday telegraphed to Reno for a photograph of "Buzz" Kelly, an ex-convict, and lately released from the Carson Prison, having served a term of three years for burglarizing Powning's house. Kelly has been in San Quentin twice, and as the Sacramento officers have arrested him, it is pretty certain that he will go to San Quentin again.

Stewart and Edwards are actively engaged in erecting a smelting furnace at Pyramid, for the Pyramid Mining Company.
